

Small Business Help with the COVID-19 Pandemic

What SBDC Does	What SBA Does
Webinars on resources and strategies for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Emergency Loan and Grant Programs • Business Survival • Starting a New Business Confidential, no-fee, one-on-one assistance in: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • APPLYING for financing • Survival Strategies • Financial Management • Marketing • Unwinding a Business • Starting a New Business Connections to other resources to help your business and employees Find answers to the questions of today	Offers emergency loan and forgivable loan programs, including Paycheck Protection Program Loan guarantees, Economic Injury Disaster Loans and, Express Bridge Loans Offers financing programs: 7(a), 504, Express, Community Advantage, Microloan, Export Express, Export Working Capital, International Trade Loan Manages the 8(a) Business Development Program and HUBZone Program to help socially and economically disadvantaged people or entities obtain government contracts Webinars on accessing capital and government contracting
What SBDC Does Not Do	What SBA Does Not Do
Does not provide funding of any kind – no loans, no grants, no equity investments but is able to help you identify opportunities Does not evaluate your funding request or decide on the amount of funding you will receive	Does not provide individual assistance in applying for financing Does not provide individual business and management advice

SBDCs are one of the resource partners with the Small Business Administration. We are working together with the Women’s Business Centers, SCORE and Veteran’s Business Outreach Centers to help provide guidance and training to America’s business community during this crisis and beyond.